

PRIVACY NOTICE

Swim Run Jersey ("SRJ") is subject to Jersey data protection legislation which from 25 May 2018 is the Data Protection (Jersey) Law 2018 in addition to the General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR"), where applicable.

SRJ is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. As such this policy details the basis upon which we collect and/or process your personal information.

This Privacy Notice has been drafted in a clear and transparent manner so that all SRJ competitors and volunteers are able to understand how SRJ collects and processes their data in order that they can provide consent to certain uses of personal data as outlined below.

Personal data

"Personal data" means information about a living individual (the "data subject") who can be identified from that data (either by itself or when combined with other information).

What personal data do we collect and how?

We collect and process various categories of personal data when you register for one of our events. We will limit the collection and processing of data to information necessary to adequately deliver the event you have registered for. Personal data may include:

- The registrant's name and address;
 - The registrant's date of birth;
 - Parent/Guardian/ICE's contact details (email address, mobile phone number and landline);
- and

We may also require personal data defined as "special category data" for specific and limited purposes, such as ensuring that the registrant is able to race safely and for the provision of any merchandise connected with the event (eg tshirt size). We will only process special categories of information where we've obtained your explicit consent or are otherwise lawfully permitted to do so. This may include but is not limited to:

- physical health details or medical conditions.

How we obtain personal data

Your personal data is made up of all the personal information and documentation we collect and hold about you. It includes:

- a. Information and documentation you give to us via your registration forms;
- b. information and documentation that we learn about you through our relationship with you; and
- c. information and documentation that we gather from publicly available sources, such as results published elsewhere.

Who has access to your data?

Members of the delivery team, including but not limited to (3D events and Vaughan Robinson), Race Nation (see below), event volunteers and third parties (eg Normandy Rescue and Le Mourier Surf School) have access to registrant's data in order for them to carry out their roles at events.

Why do we need your personal data?

SRJ needs your personal data for the following reasons:

- in order to process your entry in our event
- for event results
- to ensure that registrants are safe at all points (medical information and next of kin/ in case of emergency information)
- to keep you updated with our events
- to provide news and event updates
- to provide details of changes of dates and venues
- to provide periodic updates and press releases/ race reports.

Basis of use

SRJ collects personal data that is necessary for the purposes of its legitimate interests as an event organiser.

SRJ requires consent from registrants for the using/processing of personal data for the purposes of publishing results, photos and providing the media with event reports. At every event we request confirmation that we are able to utilise photos for race reports in the JEP, Facebook and/or the website or similar outlets.

How long do we keep your personal data?

We retain your personal data for as long as reasonably required. Historic event results and reports will be retained on our website and those outlets that have published the results as reports.

Your rights

As a data subject you have certain rights, these include the right of access (commonly known as a subject access request), the right to be informed (as set out in this privacy notice), the right to amend your details, the right to be forgotten (or erase your details), the right to restrict what we do with your data, the right to transfer data and also to object.

Should you have any questions on this privacy notice or wish to exercise any of your rights please contact 3D Events (enquiries@3d-events.co.uk).

You are also entitled to withdraw your consent at any point. Please contact SRJ (enquiries@3d-events.co.uk) should you wish to withdraw consent.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, we have put in place physical, electronic procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect. Much of the information you provide is held via a third party provider (see below).

Sharing with third parties

We may need to share your personal data with third parties but we shall not do so except:

- where we have your express permission; and
- where it is required in order for you to enter into an event.

SRJ use the platform Race Nation in order to facilitate registration for events and also for member details. Race Nation is the data controller for the personal data you input and as such has its own privacy policy which can be found <https://www.race-nation.com/privacy/>
